Thanksgiving Preparations Underway

Fall is upon us, which means we are in the midst of planning another delicious Thanksgiving Day feast here at Cotton Grove Estate. Of course, we realize that many of our sweet residents will want to spend the holiday with their families, which we absolutely encourage. If you are planning to take a family member out for the day, we kindly request that you let us know no later than November 16th so that we can make the appropriate arrangements for our own Thanksgiving meal here at Cotton Grove.

You may reach out to Anna by phone at (912) 424-6422 or by email at anna@cottongroveestate.com. Or, better yet, stop on by Cotton Grove and say hello in person! We sure would love to see you! But remember, don't call before you come - we love it when friends and family members stop by unannounced, as it allows us the opportunity to show them that things here at Cotton Grove are always the same, whether we're expecting visitors or not.

Halloween Cookie Decorating

We're so excited that the holidays are here! It's been one heck of a year, but if there's anything that can bring a smile to our faces, it's some good food and even better friends! With Halloween the kickoff to the holiday season, so we simply couldn't let it pass without our own little celebration. This year, the residents got together to decorate some darling Halloween-themed cookies. Don't they look delicious?!

Ladies' Day Out At JC Nails

At Cotton Grove Estate, we believe that no detail ought to be overlooked when it comes to the comfort and care of your loved ones. For this reason, we offer our residents complimentary on-site manicures and pedicures, along with many other treatments. However, sometimes it's fun to take a day out on the town!

With that in mind, the ladies of Cotton Grove were treated to a special outing at JC Nails for manicures and pedicures! It was wonderful to see them enjoy themselves as they were pampered by the fabulous staff at the salon.

Cotton Grove Estate would like to extend a special thank you to JC Nails for opening their shop up extra early in order to accommodate our group, and for taking such excellent care of our precious ladies. They were so very grateful and they all left looking absolutely beautiful.

JC Nails is located at 116 Allison Street, Jesup, GA.
