A Heartfelt Thank You

Hello, Friends!

Another installment of The Front Porch has arrived and we couldn't kick it off without first extending a very heartfelt thank you to everyone who has been kind enough to leave us a positive review as of late. We have been absolutely overwhelmed and blown away by your kind words!

Last month, several family members and friends took the time to leave us a 5-star Google review and we are beyond grateful.

If you'd like to see what others are saying about Cotton Grove Estate, our Google reviews can be found here. And if you would like to leave a review about your own experience with CGE, we would absolutely love it if you would do so! You may leave a Google review here, or a Facebook review here.

Your continued support is so appreciated and your honest opinions help us to continue providing your loved ones with the top notch care of which they are so deserving. We couldn't do it without you!

Arts & Crafts

The activities calendar at Cotton Grove Estate is always full of fun ways to pass the time and we just love it when Arts & Crafts day rolls around! It's such a blast seeing what our talented residents come up with. They love gathering around the dining room table to paint and visit with one another, and we thoroughly enjoy seeing them have such a great time. Look at these darling wooden cutouts they created! Seeing their happy smiles is so rewarding!

Welcome Home, Mrs. Pam!

The team at Cotton Grove Estate would like to extend the warmest welcome home to one of our newest residents, Mrs. Pam Poppell!

Mrs. Pam is originally from Jesup. When she married Edwin Poppell, she moved to Odum, where she worked as a teacher's assistant at Odum Elementary for 25 years.

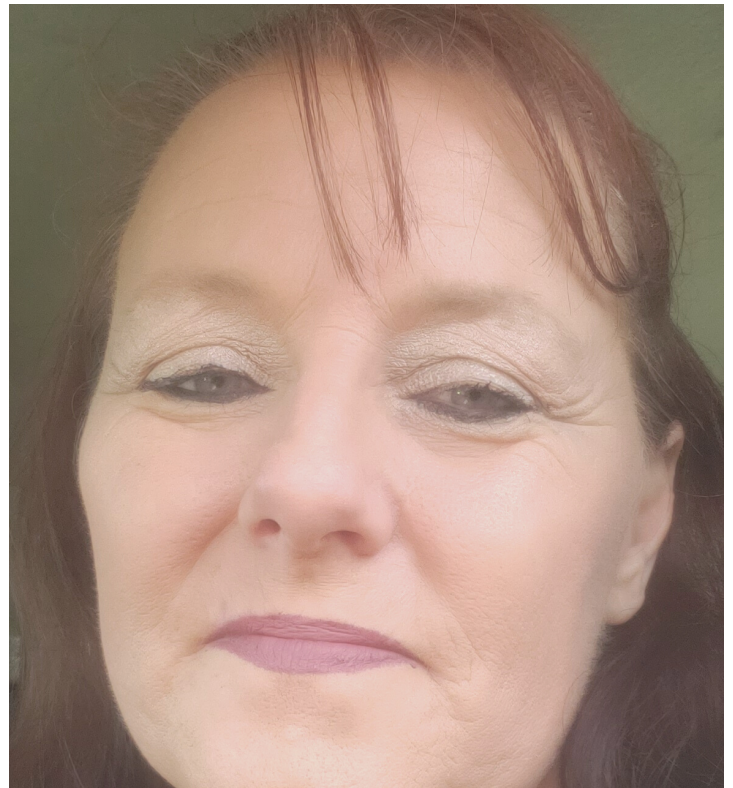

Mrs. Pam and her husband were married for 56 years and had two daughters. She also has two granddaughters, and a son-in-law whom she considers a son. She is known for her beautiful gospel singing, and has performed at several churches and events in and around Wayne County.

Mrs. Pam is the oldest of three children. Her mother is the late Inez Morosky of Jesup. She loves camping, gardening, and spending time with her family.

Welcome home, Mrs. Pam!

Caregiver Spotlight: Bobbi Jo Finch

"My name is Bobbie Jo Finch and I am a caregiver at Cotton Grove Estate. First and foremost, I want to thank God for giving me a heart to love people the way He does. Secondly, I want to thank Mrs. Anna for giving me the opportunity to work in such a beautiful and loving atmosphere with a group of wonderful ladies. I just can't say how special each and every resident is to me. I can't just pick one to love more than the other because they all have impacted my life in different ways. Thank you to all of the families for trusting me to care for your loved ones as if they were one of my parents or grandparents. I can't thank you all enough for making my dream come true."

A Message From Anna

Hello Friends,

I hope you all had a wonderful Thanksgiving holiday filled with family, friends, and yummy food! Our celebration at Cotton Grove was just lovely. And, boy, do we have a lot to be grateful for this year! To begin with, we have weathered a pandemic with the utmost care and caution. The tireless efforts of our diligent caregivers have paid off - we can still say that all of our residents are happily COVID-free, even as many areas of the country are experiencing a surge in positive cases of the virus.

I am also overwhelmingly grateful to announce that we are nearly at capacity with residents. This has been such a tremendous blessing. We are so encouraged that you continue to entrust us with the care and comfort of your loved ones. They are just as precious to us as members of our own families and we love them dearly!

If you or someone you know would like to join the family here at Cotton Grove, please contact me directly at (912) 424-6422. Spots are filling up quickly, so now is the time to stop by and see our beautiful grounds. I would love to hear from you!

Warmly,

Anna Pittard
